RIVER NOW CLEAR

LAST OF STRAW WAS DRAGGED FROM RIVER MONDAY.

MR. M'CLURG PAYS BILL

Man Who Dumped Straw in River Would Not Tackle Job, so Expense Was Charged Up to Him.

After the equivalent of fourteen days of work, the last straw of the immense pile which was threshed into the One Hundred and Two river a month ago on the Hugh McClurg farm, six miles north of town, completely damming the stream and contaminating the city water supply of Maryville, was dragged out of the river Monday evening. All day Sunday and Monday a force of seven men, under the direction of Manager Lou Denny of the water company and Street Commissioner Woods, worked hard at the clearing of this foul obstruction from the river, for Mr. McClurg refused to do the work himself, and even threatened to keep the force of men sent by the city from coming on his land.

The law provides that in just such cases the city can have the work done at the expense of the property owner. Consequently, when Mr. McClurg failed to take the straw out of the river the board of public works lost no time in having a force of men sent to do the work. The river is now clear, and it only remains for the contaminated water to flow away for the city water to become free from odor and bad taste.

When the dam was first discovered about ten days ago by the members of the board of public works and Mr. McClurg's attention called to the fact that it was spoiling the water for use in Maryville, he offered to clear it away as rapidly as possible, and explained that he had put it there to turn the water into the new drainage ditch, with no thought of its effect on the water. He did burn the straw that was on the bank and that part of the dam which was above the water, but when he started to clear away that which was under the water he saw it would be an endless job, so gave it up. When the men came from Maryville Sunday morning to begin the work Mr. McClurg at first refused to let them come on his place. He was soon convinced that they were supported by the law and that he would have to let the work be done at his expense. They began at once the big task.

The dam made with the straw was 150 feet long and five feet deep. A large grappling fork was used to take the straw from the river. It was fastened to a heavy rope that was run through a pulley tied to the limb of a tree overhanging the river. Such heavy loads were pulled up that two ropes were broken. The straw was dumped along the river bank and will be burned as soon as dry. After clearing away the dam the men went along the river and with pitchforks cleared out straw that had floated down and lodged in the brush. The stench of the rotten straw was so great that it sickened some of the men.

Poultry Notice.

Each boy and girl who received free eggs for hatching last spring and have succeeded in raising any chicks is requested to drop a card to Joseph H. Sayler, secretary of the Poultry association at Maryville, Mo., giving name and address, and if not too much trouble give number of chicks raised. We will have some information to give you later and and will want to send you catalogue when we get ready for the December show.

IS MAKING GOOD.

G. E. Perdew, Former Maryville Boy, in the Life Insurance Business at Hutchinson, Kan.

The following account is taken from the Hutchinson, Kan., Gazette about G. E. Perdew, a former Maryville boy, and a son of Mrs. Jesse Perdew, now residing at Lyons, Kan., with G. G. Perdew:

G. E. Perdew, local agent for the International Life Insurance company, enjoys a double distinction. He not only gets to take a fine trip through the east on the company, but he's the only agent of this company in the state who gets to take the trip.

Mr. Perdew made what is called the "hundred thousand dollar club." To make this club an agent must have written $100,000 worth of insurance in a year. Not content with making this good mark in a year, Mr. Perdew has written $100,000 worth since March 1st.

He leaves Hutchinson today and at Cleveland, O., joins some more of the company's representatives. They take a boat at Cleveland for Niagara Falls and Toronto, Canada. Later they go to Alexander Bay, N. Y., where a big banquet will be held. Then it is New York, Buffalo and home.

Mr. Perdew received the news of his good fortune yesterday from J. L. Babler, general manager of the agencies at St. Louis.

JUDGE GRAVES FOR SENATOR.

Talk of the Jurist Being a Candidate Against Senator W. J. Stone.

A dispatch from Jefferson City says: The possibility of Judge W. W. Graves of the state supreme court getting into the race for the United States senate against William Joel Stone next summer is causing the reactionary Old Guard wing of Missouri Democracy considerable worry.

While Judge Graves has steadfastly refused even to discuss making the race for the senate, a considerable movement is under way over the state to bring him out as a candidate for Stone's seat. And with the jurist in the field, trouble will be spelled with capital letters for the present senior senator from Missouri.

Judge Graves has been a leader in the supreme court for years. He has commanded the utmost respect of the lawyers of the state on account of his ability as a jurist without regard to their political affiliations. As a vote getter with the people Judge Graves is regarded as one of the most popular Democrats in Missouri.

Although Judge Graves refuses to discuss the possibility of his making the race and has stated to friends that he preferred to remain on the bench, it is believed that whether he becomes a candidate or not largely depends upon the attitude of ex-Governor Joseph W. Folk of St. Louis. Judge Graves has been a friend of Governor Folk and would not run against him or do anything that would in any way push him ont of the race.

Property Changing Hands.

Through the real estate firm of Smith & Grems, the George Aley residence property, in Southeast Maryville, was sold to E. E. Grubbe. Also through this same firm the George Aley property in St. Joseph was sold to Prof. John A. Whiteford, and Mr. Aley took in the deal Mr. Whiteford's residence lot on East Sixth street.

Oats Are Good.

There are many good yields of oats reported in the vicinity of Pickering. C. B. Leach had an average of 59 bushels an acre on ten acres. T. N. Kelley had a field which made 57 bushels per acre, and M. F. Gray reports over 50 bushels to the acre. J. L. Neal had 55 bushels an acre on seventeen acres.

The Franks Are Moving.

Mr. and Mrs. Arch Frank have moved to the Borrusch flats, where they will make their home until Mr. Frank builds on the lot next to his father, W. C. Frank. Mr. Frank sold his property on South Main street to Mrs. Ford of Columbia, Mo., and she will arrive in Maryville to take possession next Monday.

LOSERS MUST PAY

BANQUET TO WINNING TEAM OF THE COMMERCIAL CLUB

AFTER NEW MEMBERS

Two Teams of Nine Men Each to Conduct Campaign to Build Up the Membership of the Club.

The Commercial club is after new members, and arrangements are being made for a membership campaign in the city as well as in the country close to the city. Every business man should belong to the club, and efforts will be made to induce them to join.

The club will be divided into two teams, H. L. Raines captain of one and W. M. Oakerson captain of the other. Both leaders have chosen eight men to assist in the campaign and each one of these eight men to select five members of the club to help out in the work. The eight men selected by Mr. Raines are R. B. Montgomery, Byron Rhodes, C. C. Helmers, John Moore, Nic Sturm, H. C. Bower, Mayor A. S. Robey and Roy Curfman. The men selected by Professor Oakerson are Walter Wray, John E. Cameron, Charles Wadley, James Todd, Frank Reavis, Charles McNeal, George Moore and Dr. Jesse Miller.

The campaign for new members will start on Wednesday, September 3, and will close in two weeks. The team that secures the biggest number of new members will be the honor guest of a banquet at the expense of the losing team.

A special effort will be made to induce farmers to join the club. Since the Commercial club is a live organization, it is expected that not much trouble will be had to induce business men and farmers to join. The club has accomplished more during the past year than ever before, and the present year the indications are promising for a very successful year.

STOLE A GOLD WATCH.

Albert Glover, 15-Year-Old Boy, Confessed to Taking Watch From Ed Goeke.

Albert Glover, a 15-year-old colored boy, took a gold watch from Ed Goeke, who is in charge of the shoe repairing department of the Bee Hive shoe store. The watch was taken while Goeke was not looking, and when it was discovered to be gone the colored boy was suspected at once. Chief of Police Moberly arrested him, and the boy said he took the watch. It was returned to Mr. Goeke.

What will be done with the colored boy is not known. He is in the county jail at present. It is probable he will be brought up before the juvenile court.

Otis Gray of Parnell and Will and Alex Needles of Ravenwood were city visitors Tuesday.

In addition to this strong array of talent Acting Governor Glynn is also to be advised by ex-Judge Edwin Countryman and P. C. Dugan.

MEET THIS WEEK

TEACHERS AND SCHOOL BOARDS WILL BE HERE TOGETHER.

TEACHERS MUST ATTEND

Law Requires That they Obey Commands—Over 600 Will Be Here, Including School Boards.

The school boy should be happy this week, for his enemy, the teacher, is to have her turn at obeying commands. And not only that, but the awe-inspiring officers of the school board must meekly submit to some one else's orders. The law says, "Attend the teachers' meeting and the school board convention," and attend they must. Consequently 250 schoolmarms will throng to Maryville for a two days' stay Thursday, August 28, and they will be followed the next day by 350 of their district school board presidents and clerks.

This will be the first meeting of the school board convention, for the law creating it was passed only this last winter. The convention will take up such matters as the subjects of the curricula, the tenure of teachers, keeping of records, construction, care and equipment of buildings and the health of the children. Some of the speakers and their subjects are:

Prof. John E. Cameron, "Agriculture in the Rural Schools."

President Ira Richardson, "Longer Tenure for Rural Teachers."

"Senator Anderson Craig, "New School Legislation."

Addresses by J. Kelly Wright, lecturer for the state board of agriculture, Columbia, and W. A. Blagg.

The teachers' meeting will be in session both days. Friday morning there will be a joint meeting of the teachers and school board officers, at which time the addresses mentioned in the foregoing paragraph will be given. The other sessions will be separate, though all will be held in the high school building.

Prof. W. M. Oakerson will preside over the teachers' meeting Thursday, but on Friday he will attend the school board convention. Supt. W. M. Westbrook will preside at the teachers' meeting that day in his stead.

FOR THE SCHOOLS, $20,230.17.

Requisition Will Be Made by County Court On the State For This Amount.

A requisition will be made by the county court at its September meeting next week on the state for $20,230.17, which will go to the schools of the county. Of this amount $17,249.46 is the regular school apportionment and will be divided among all the schools according to attendance and the teachers' salary. Then there is $1,120.71 which will go to weak rural school districts, according to the recent new law. Then the high schools will receive $1,860, to be divided among a few of the schools that met all of the requirements of the law. Then there is $880 to go to a few high schools just as soon as their work is approved, but this amount is not included in the requisition.

A FARM MEETING.

One to Be Held on September 11 on the I. N. Gartin Farm, Near Darlington.

For the last three years the college of agriculture of the University of Missouri, the U. S. department of agriculture and I. N. Gartin, who lives five miles south of Darlington and about the same distance northeast of Ford City, have been running a demonstration farm. The work has been carried on quietly but effectively. As the work is of a public nature the University of Missouri and the government feels it their duty to give the farmers in Gentry county an opportunity to study the results accomplished on this farm.

September 11 a demonstration farm meeting will be held on the Gartin farm. Mr. Gartin has been following the best outline that could be given him for carrying on a systematic farm management plan of farming. The results obtained will show for themselves the day of the meeting. The biggest crops nor the fattest hogs may not be there, but the results of business farming will be shown.

In order to explain carefully the plan of the whole farm and go over the work in detail, the meeting will be started at 10 o'clock. Up until noon the time will be spent in talking over the plan of the work, then an hour will be given to an "all-join-in-" basket dinner, to which everyone is asked to contribute. After the dinner a trip will be made over the farm and every department of the work will be fully explained and all questions answered.

SEPTEMBER 3 IS DATE

Each Child of School Age in or Near Maryville Will Be Sent an Invitation to Attend.

Arrangements are being made by the Commercial club for a picnic in honor of the children of Maryville and also within a radius of a mile of so from Maryville. Such announcement was made at the board of directors of the club luncheon held Monday at the Elks club.

The committee in charge is composed of Joseph Jackson, Jr., John Sewell, J. F. Hull, Paul Sisson, Earl Barmann and F. P. Reuillard. The committee will meet soon to make the arrangements and each child of school age in the city and near the city will be sent an invitation to attend.

The picnic will be held Wednesday, September 3, probably at Powell grove. The children will be transported from the city to that place and also brought back by the Commercial club. It is thought such an outing for the children will be a very enjoyable occasion, as school will open only a few days afterward.

The children will be asked to bring baskets of good things to eat and the Commercial club will also furnish eatables. Many members of the club will be present at the picnic to see that the children are having a good time. The children will be taken out to the picnic grounds in automobiles.

TO COLLECT POLL TAX.

The City to Bring Suit Against Those Who Refused and Failed to Pay the Tax.

Those who have refused to pay their poll tax to the city had better come through within the next few days or suits will be filed against them. A list of those who have failed to pay have been turned over by Street Commissioner M. I. Woods to City Attorney W. H. Crawford. Mr. Crawford has been instructed to bring suit against these parties at once.

Every male resident of the city over the age of 21 years and under 50 is required to pay poll tax to the city. Street Commissioner Woods has collected most of the tax, but there are some who seem to think that it is not necessary to pay poll tax.

EVERY DAY A FARMERS' DAY.

Special Effort Being Made to Make the State Fair a Practical Benefit to the Farmer.

The Missouri state fair at Sedalia, September 27-October 3, gives wonderful promise of a great exhibition and largely increased attendance. Coming just before the American Royal at Kansas City, the Illinois state fair at Springfield, and the new state fair at Muskogee, Okla., and with a largely increased premium list, all departments of the exhibition will be strongly, especially the live stock show. An example of the prospects for the show may be seen in the entry list for the world's greatest saddle horse stake, in which there has been twenty entries.

In arranging for the coming exhibition at Sedalia, particular attention has been paid to the practical interests of the farmer. The model farm on the fair grounds; lectures and demonstrations by the experts of the federal station for the prevention of hog cholera; plowing, dairy and egg laying contests; the boys' state fair school, premiums in canning and bread making for girls and corn growing, stock and corn judging for the boys of the farm, and an especially attractive display of farm machinery will be among the features.

Monday, September 30, will be "Automobile day," and thousands of automobile parties are expected to visit the fair and enjoy the special features that have been arranged for that day. Tuesday is "Sedalia day," Wednesday "Agricultural Implement Dealers' day," Thursday "Governor's day," Friday "Missouri Editors' day," and every day "Missouri Farmers' day."

Several thousand dollars have been expended on improvements on the grounds and new buildings and many free amusements have been secured to entertain the visitors, among them Thaviu's band and grand opera sextet, latest model monoplane, a four-drop balloonist, a splendid racing card and five big acts of vaudeville.

The homes of Sedalia will be thrown open to those who prefer not to stop at the hotels, and an information bureau located on the public square of Sedalia, with a branch office on the fair grounds will furnish messenger service to direct visitors to their destinations and furnish information.

The catalogue and premium list may be secured free on application to Secretary John T. Stinson, Sedalia, Mo.

THE VALUE OF GOOD ROADS.

A Booster Bulletin Says Good Highways Will About Double Total Worth of Farm Land.

A good roads boosting bulletin which Labor Commissioner John T. Fitzpatrick issued Monday shows the necessity of a network of improved state highways which will place the remotest spot in Missouri in close touch with the busiest center.

Information is given that there are 277,244 farms in the state, taking up an acreage amounting to 34,591,248 acres of the 43,985,280 acres of land in Missouri. Of the farm lands 24,581,186 acres are improved and under cultivation, leaving 10,010,062 acres, of which 8,918,972 acres are still nearly in their original state, which means well timbered, with some sections high and dry, but ready for dairying and sheep and goat raising, and other sections low and very fertile, ready to produce from seventy-five to 100 bushels of corn per acre, annually, the amount they are cleared, drained and protected by high, substantial levees. Then there are 4,000,000 acres not included in the farm area and aside from the 5,000,000 which the cities and towns take up, ready to be put to some use.

The bulletin states that good roads and the taking up of all of the unimproved lands in the state will easily raise the total worth of Missouri's annual farm products, including live stock and dairy outputs from $500,000,000 to $800,000,000. Live stock and dairy products will double in amount and value, Missouri will take first place for its annual corn yield instead of holding third position and the wheat crop will increase 20 per cent, advancing the state one or two notches in that respect.

There is a future for the negro in farming. Of the 277,244 farms in the state 3,666 are run by negroes, 14,467 by white foreigners and 259,111 by white natives. The average size farm of Missouri, one of about 125 acres, annually derives, when averaged, about $1,842 from products which are sent to market. In addition there is the free living, the best the land affords with such articles as chicken, country butter and hams, buttermilk and rich cream on the daily menu, if it is desired. Also free rent when the farm is owned by the person running it. No outlay for fuel is necessary.

With all farms of the state, the buildings on them and other improvements and all domestic animals, poultry and bees, worth a total of $2,052,917,488, it means that the average farm, one of 125 acres, is worth $7,405. The average worth of these farm lands per acre is $42.

That a small farm in Missouri pays, in proportion, as well as one of 125 acres, is shown by the fact that there are 455 farms in the state with less than 3 acres; 7,561 with from 3 to 9 acres, and 10,740 with from 10 to 19 acres, the annual yields of which were included in getting at the average earnings per farm.

There are 80,020 farms in Missouri with an acreage of from 100 to 175 acres. Farms ranging from 50 to 99 acres are next in number, there being 74,178 of this class. Of other sizes, there are 47,398 in the state with from 20 to 49 acres; 32,109 ranging from 175 to 259 acres; 19,812, 260 to 499 acres; 3,427, 500 to 999 acres, and 544 with 1,000 acres and over.

Unimproved lands can be bought in certain places from $5 an acre up and improved for $20 and up, according to the location. A network of good roads will double the value of all cheaper farm land, which is, as a rule, only cheap because it is in a remote place.

Of the 277,244 farms in Missouri, 192,285, or 69.4 per cent are operated by the owners. More than half of Missouri's farms are free of mortgages, the number being 102,514 of 192,285 which are owned by the operators, a showing which is superior to that made by the farmers of Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Pennsylvania, New York and other eastern states. For farms which are encumbered, the mortgage only averages 38.9 per cent of the entire value, a condition which reveals that the debt is less than half of the amount which can be borrowed on them. Since 1890 the average Missouri farm increased in value from $2,643 to $6,083, a gain of $3,440, or 130 per cent. In the same time the indebtedness decreased over 24 per cent, when compared to the gain in worth.

Lee Griffen went to Bolckow this morning.

A Birthday Party.

Monday was Mrs. Frank Martin's fifty-second birthday, and she invited the members of the Eastern Star and Woodmen Circle to be her guests at a picnic given at her home, about one mile east of the city, on Monday evening. The guests went to the Martin home in hayracks, buggies and autos. One member of the party, Charles McNeal, went to the picnic without his hat, and it was given out that he went for that purpose, so as to get a hat from some of the other members of the party. On his way back to town Mr. McNeal had a hat on, but how he got it or where it came from the other members of the picnic party were unable to find out, as none of the members had lost their hats. Refreshments were served consisting of ice cream and cake and watermelon. The Eastern Star lodge presented Mrs. Martin a beautiful silver spoon with the letters "O. E. S." on the handle. Cadillac Police Car Covers 74,000 Miles in Two Years.

Seventy-four thousand miles in two years and ten days is the astonishing record made by the Cadillac five-passenger touring car which has been operated by the police department of Houston, Texas, for the regular work of hurry calls, transporting officers and prisoners to and from the courts, and the like. The car was purchased in 1911 and has just been replaced by a 1913 Cadillac.

The total of 74,000 miles is a remarkable record, for the average distance a motor car travels each year is not much more than 7,000 miles. The grand total of 74,000 is nearly three times around the globe. Yet this police car did its work night and day, irrespective of time or weather, and over some of the worst roads the city possesses. Moreover, as it was used for police service, quick action was necessary and therefore it was impossible on many occasions to return for a second or third load. Consequently it was a common practice to load this car with a dozen and even as many as sixteen people.

In spite of the numbers carried, the roads traveled and the distance covered the car is still in good condition, and, after being somewhat rebuilt, will be sold at a good price with a guarantee back of it.

LIND BIDS ADIEU TO MEXICO CITY

President Wilson's Envoy Leaves for Vera Cruz.

MAKES FINAL CALL ON GAMBOA

Nothing to Indicate Huerta Will Recede From His Position and President Will Read Message to Congress. Embargo on Arms to Remain.

Washington, Aug. 26.—President Wilson will read his message on the Mexican situation at the capitol today. This was decided following the receipt of a message from John Lind, personal representative of President Wilson in Mexico, that he had said goodbye to Foreign Minister Gamboa and would leave Mexico City today. Negotiations so far as Mr. Lind is concerned have been terminated. The United States will receive any further proposals through Charge d'Affaires O'Shaughnessy of the American embassy.

The policy of the United States was outlined to the members of the two congressional committees of foreign relations at a conference at the White House by President Wilson and Secretary Bryan. The president's message received practically unanimous approval. The future course of this government will be one of non-interference in the hope that the effect of its present efforts and the pressure of foreign governments will constitute a moral suasion that ultimately will bring about peace in Mexico.

No Lifting of Embargo.

The message makes it plain that there will be no lifting of the embargo on arms; that no faction or government in Mexico will be allowed to receive munitions of war from the United States. If necessary the president proposes to increase the American border patrol to enforce this policy.

It is a message of friendship, not hostility, and proclaims a policy of absolute non-interference. It proclaims to the world the sympathetic feeling that the United States government and the American people have for their neighbors in the rebellion torn republic south of the Rio Grande.

It records the views of the United States on constitutional government, its unalterable opposition to government set up by the irregular and arbitrary acts of ambitious individuals, and formally announces that the government of Victoriano Huerta shall not be recognized. The efforts of the United States to bring about a peaceful settlement of the difficulty through the representation made by John Lind, special envoy of President Wilson, are outlined, as well as the answer of the Huerta government.

The United States had proposed that a constitutional election be held and that Huerta should not be a candidate. To these suggestions, through which the United States believes peace could be restored, Huerta had replied in the negative. Foreign governments generally since that rejection have been active in support of the American policy to persuade Huerta to yield

THAW CASE DEVELOPMENTS

Talk of It Assuming International Aspects Is Renewed.

Sherbrooke, Que., Aug. 26.—The arrival of William Travers Jerome, Harry Kendall Thaw's old prosecutor, the assumption by ex-Governor William A. Stone of Pennsylvania of the position of spokesman here for the Thaw family, pending the coming of Roger O'Mara, the Pittsburgh detective, and the injection into the case of renewed talk of it assuming international aspects, were briefly the chief developments of the day in Sherbrooke, the ninth since Stanford White's slayer fled from Matteawan.

Thaw again spoke of Jerome sneeringly, calling him "Willie" and insisted that his lawyers re-issue a summary of Jerome's remarks made in 1908, when he said that no one had ever contended Thaw was insane.

Forbes Learns of His Successor.

Manila, Aug. 26.—W. Cameron Forbes, governor general of the Philippines since November, 1909, sent his resignation to Washington. It is effective Sept. 1, when Mr. Forbes will leave directly for the United States. It was only recently, Mr. Forbes says, that he was apprised of the appointment of Francis Burton Harrison of New York as the new Philippine governor. His friends feel strongly that he deserved more courteous treatment after so long a service.

Will Probe Murder of Missionary.

Constantinople, Aug. 26.—The United States embassy here has dispatched Lewis Heck, acting vice consul, to open an inquiry into the circumstances attending the murder last week of Dr. Charles H. Holbreek, an American missionary, at Soushehir, Asiatic Turkey.

Jumps From Brooklyn Bridge.

New York, Aug. 26.—Peter Kelly, a young motorman, jumped from the Brooklyn bridge at its highest point and escaped with a few slight bruises. On his way down Kelly turned over half a dozen times and struck the East river almost flat on his back. Kelly refused to tell why he made the jump

1914 Overland $950

35 horsepower Electric lights 114-inch wheelbase

Again the price comes down—

—again the value goes up!

—again we prove the power and possibilities of large production.

Last year we built 40,000 cars. This was not enough for the demand by nearly 10,000 cars. This year we will manufacture 50,000 cars (twice as many as we did two years ago) cover the car with additional value and what will strike you as most remarkable, MAKE THE PRICE LOWER THAN EVER. Such is the net economical result of manufacturing one type of automobile on an enormous scale.

You who have followed our success from season to season have watched our annual models grow in value and decline in price. And as our prices came down our production went up. We have always and unfailingly given the public more automobile for less money than any other manufacturer in the industry.

Here are the big 1914 facts!

The motor has been enlarged. The bore is 4⅛ inch—stroke 4½ inch. It is conservatively rated at 35 horsepower and will develop 50 miles an hour. It has a five bearing crankshaft and three bearings on the camshaft.

The wheelbase has been lengthened to 114-inches. This, as you know, is the average wheelbase of $1200 cars. And a long wheelbase eliminates road jars and rut jolts.

The tires are large—33x4 inch Q. D. Large tires insure less upkeep expense, smoother operation and add to the appearance of the car.

The body design is symmetrical and graceful. It will appeal to those who admire the beauty of simplicity. It has a European cowl dash and full U doors (fore and rear) with disappearing hinges. The body is richly finished in dark Brewster green, edged with lighter green stripings and trimmed in heavy polished nickel and aluminum.

The upholstery is Turkish—soft, luxurious and comfortable. The rear back-cushion is 18¼ inch deep.

Rear axle is three-quarter floating, fitted with the famous Hyatt bearings. Front axle is I beam section drop-forged in one heat without welding. Timken bearings on front wheels.

The equipment is the pick of the market—and is complete. It includes such high-priced features as one of the finest electric lighting systems with storage battery. Head, side and tail lights are electric. Dash light is also electric. All light and control buttons are located on the dash under the cowl. Set flush with the dash is a $40 Stewart speedometer—the most practical speed indicator in the world. Timken bearings, Splitdorf magneto, Model R Schebler carburetor, Electric horn, 18-inch Steering Wheel, Mohair top and boot, and a clear-vision windshield are a few of the many other finishing touches that go to make it the car complete.

The foregoing is but a short digest of the newest Overland, yet it concisely itemizes and sums up the greater Overland value. When you fully realize what an exceptional and economical buy the 1914 Overland is—after the great value facts have become firmly lodged in your commercial and calculating brain, remember this—THAT IN THE VERY FACE OF THIS INCREASED VALUE THE PRICE HAS AGAIN COME DOWN.

Price reduction is a condition that is controlled and regulated by factory facilities—the larger the manufacturer the lower he can market his merchandise. As we are producting more cars of this type than any other manufacturer in the world we can effect industrial economies which make it possible for us to market a car that will, on the average, cost you 30 per cent less than any other similar model.

BREACH IN RANKS OF SULZER SUPPORTERS

Herrick Repudiates Move to Indict Murphy.

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 26.—A possible breach in the ranks of Governor Sulzer's supporters was indicated by the statement of former Judge D. Cady Herrick, who leads the governor's legal forces in the impeachment matter, that "counsel for Governor Sulzer have nothing to do with any alleged criminal proceedings against Charles F. Murphy, Senator Frawley or Assemblyman Levy, and are not pursuing any investigation of a criminal character against any one."

On the other hand Judge Lynn J. Arnold in New York and others in Albany in the confidence of Governor Sulzer reiterated the declaration that steps to procure indictments already have been taken both in New York and Albany counties.

The indictment of the three leaders is asked on statements of many persons presented by Judge Arnold to the district attorneys regarding an alleged conspiracy to put Sulzer out of the governor's chair. In so announcing, Judge Arnold repeated his declaration that money had been freely used to accomplish this result.

CAMINETTI PUT ON TRIAL

Western Fuel Case Also Comes Up at San Francisco.

San Francisco, Aug. 26.—F. Drew Caminetti, companion of Maury I. Diggs in the elopement from Sacramento, Cal., to Reno, Nev., with Marsha Warrington and Lola Norris, which resulted in the conviction of Diggs last week for violation of the Mann white slave act, will be brought to trial today in the United States district court before Judge Van Fleet. It is expected several days will be spent in the selection of a jury.

Virtually the same witnesses that figured in the Diggs trial will appear against Caminetti. The two young women with whom the pair eloped to Reno will take the stand. It is expected that Mrs. Caminetti will testify on behalf of her husband.

Simultaneously with the second of the Diggs-Caminetti cases, the Western Fuel case will be called for trial today in the United States district court. All three were bracketed in public notice when United States Attorney John L. McNab resigned, charging that the prosecution was being delayed by political and personal influence.

FREE RAW WOOL IS ACCEPTED BY SENATE

Kenyon's Amendment is Recommitted After Prolonged Debate.

Washington, Aug. 26.—Free raw wool was agreed to in the senate without a roll call.

Senator Kenyon's amendment to automatically free list products of a concern adjudged a monopoly by the courts precipitated a prolonged debate, with the conclusion of which it was referred to the finance committee. A division of opinion among Republicans and Democrats was developed.

Senator Cummins declared that necessity for free listing monopoly products would disappear when the Sherman law was amended to send offenders to jail and when courts appointed receivers to sell monopoly properties so that the guilty ones could not continue to profit.

"How can monopolies be ended when the supreme court declares a combination violates the law, as it did in the Union Pacific case, and then the attorney general goes around to devise a plan with those interested to keep the monopoly alive?" demanded Senator Bristow. He added that it seemed to him that in the Standard Oil, the tobacco case and the Union Pacific cases the department of justice had connived to continue their monopoly.

Later Bristow explained he did not charge the attorney general with seeking to annul the dissolution, but charged that the result of the attorney general's consultation with railroad interests had been to deprive the public of any benefits from the dissolution.

CAUCUS CHANGES MONEY MEASURE

Agricultural Currency Amendment Adopted by Democrats.

BOTH SIDES ARE SATISFIED.

"Insurgents" Assert They Won All They Contended For, While Chairman Glass Says Henry Surrendered Because He Was Beaten.

Washington, Aug. 26.—An agricultural currency amendment to the administration currency bill was adopted by the house Democratic caucus. After several preliminary skirmishes the caucus, without a dissenting vote, adopted an amendment, sponsored by the "insurgent" contingent and the banking and currency committee, putting paper based on agricultural products on the same basis as commercial paper for banking purposes. It also would extend the maturity of notes and bills admitted to discount under the amendment to ninety days, instead of the originally proposed forty-five days. This action disposed of the last of the big controversial issues in the administration currency bill.

Substance of Amendment.

The amendment, the result of many conferences and concurred in by administration leaders and those unsuccessfully seeking other amendments reads:

"Upon the indorsement of any member bank, any federal reserve bank may discount notes and bills of exchange arising out of commercial transactions, that is, notes and bills of exchange issued or drawn for agricultural, industrial or commercial purposes or the proceeds of which have been used or may be used for such purposes, the federal reserve board to have the right to determine or define the character of the paper thus eligible for discount, within the meaning of the act. But such definition shall not include notes or bills issued or drawn for the purpose of carrying or trading in stocks, bonds or other investment securities, nor shall anything herein contained be construed to prohibit such notes and bills of exchange, secured by staple agricultural products or other goods, wares or merchandise from being eligible for such discount.

Not More Than Ninety Days.

"Notes and bills admitted to discount under the terms of this paragraph must have a maturity of not more than ninety days."

"We have won all we contended for," was the comment of Representative Neeley of Kansas, in charge of the opposition to the bill. "The Glass amendment," added Representative Henry of Texas, "amounts practically to the amendment I have advocated during the last three months."

"The rediscount section as thus amended," replied Chairman Glass, "does not comprehend a single one of the wild and absurd suggestions which had been proposed. Mr. Henry surrendered solely and simply because he was beaten. He jumped after the boat left the wharf."

It was intimated in administration circles that some modification of the reserve features of the pending currency bill might be made at the suggestion of the bankers at the Chicago meeting, though it was not stated how far this modification would go. It was made plain, however, that there would be no receding from the position of federal control.

ROOSEVELT LAUDS HIS PARTY

Colonel Says Progressives Have Made Remarkable Record.

Chicago, Aug. 26.—Colonel Roosevelt, burned almost as red as the desert Indians, among whom he has been sojourning, spent less than two hours in the city before taking the Pennsylvania special for Oyster Bay.

He made a five-minute speech at the Progressive club, in which he addressed the guests as "friends, ladies and gentlemen, voters all."

In referring to the talk of merging the Republican and Progressive parties, he asserted that the only possibility of such a plan would be for the Republicans to adopt every principle of the Progressives, including the judicial plank. In his brief speech, Colonel Roosevelt said:

"There would be no woman suffrage in Illinois today if it had not been for the work done by the Progressive party last year. Never in the history of the country has a political party accomplished what the Progressive party has in its brief history."

Hits "Joy Rides" at City's Cost.

St. Louis, Aug. 26.—An ordinance to limit the "joy riding" of city officials in municipal automobiles has been drafted by the comptroller and street commissioner for introduction at the next meeting of the municipal assembly. It is stated that trips to and from lunch, evening social calls and week-end trips into the country taken in machines intended only for the transaction of municipal business, cost the city $49,000 last year.

Missouri's First Recall Election.

St. Joseph, Mo., Aug. 26.—The first recall election ever held in Missouri was staged here today, when the question of recalling Mayor Charles A. Pfeiffer was submitted to the voters. Pfeiffer is a Republican.

SHE GAVE UP ALL HOPE

Physicians Failed To Help Mrs. Green, But She Finally Found Relief in Cardui.

Meetze, Va.—Mrs. J. C. Green of this place, says: "I suffered with womanly troubles so that I could hardly sit up. Two of the best doctors in our town treated me, and I tried different medicines, until I gave up all hope of ever getting well.

One day I decided to try some Cardui. It did so much for me that I ordered some more, and it cured me! Today, I feel as well as I ever did in my life.

The pains and the trouble are all gone. I feel like another person in every way. I wish every sufferer could know what Cardui will do for sick women."

A few doses of Cardui at the right time, will save many a big doctor bill, by preventing serious sickness.

It tones up the nervous system, and helps make pale cheeks fresh and rosy.

Thousands of weak women have been restored to health and happiness by using Cardui. Suppose you try it.

It may be just the medicine you need.

VOLUME 4. MARYVILLE, MISSOURI, TUESDAY, AUG. 26, 1913. NO. 72.

RIVER NOW CLEAR

LAST OF STRAW WAS DRAGGED FROM RIVER MONDAY.

MR. M'CLURG PAYS BILL

Man Who Dumped Straw in River Would Not Tackle Job, so Expense Was Charged Up to Him.

After the equivalent of fourteen days of work, the last straw of the immense pile which was threshed into the One Hundred and Two river a month ago on the Hugh McClurg farm, six miles north of town, completely damming the stream and contaminating the city water supply of Maryville, was dragged out of the river Monday evening. All day Sunday and Monday a force of seven men, under the direction of Manager Lou Denny of the water company and Street Commissioner Woods, worked hard at the clearing of this foul obstruction from the river, for Mr. McClurg refused to do the work himself, and even threatened to keep the force of men sent by the city from coming on his land.

The law provides that in just such cases the city can have the work done at the expense of the property owner. Consequently, when Mr. McClurg failed to take the straw out of the river the board of public works lost no time in having a force of men sent to do the work. The river is now clear, and it only remains for the contaminated water to flow away for the city water to become free from odor and bad taste.

When the dam was first discovered about ten days ago by the members of the board of public works and Mr. McClurg's attention called to the fact that it was spoiling the water for use in Maryville, he offered to clear it away as rapidly as possible, and explained that he had put it there to turn the water into the new drainage ditch, with no thought of its effect on the water. He did burn the straw that was on the bank and that part of the dam which was above the water, but when he started to clear away that which was under the water he saw it would be an endless job, so gave it up. When the men came from Maryville Sunday morning to begin the work Mr. McClurg at first refused to let them come on his place. He was soon convinced that they were supported by the law and that he would have to let the work be done at his expense. They began at once the big task.

The dam made with the straw was 150 feet long and five feet deep. A large grappling fork was used to take the straw from the river. It was fastened to a heavy rope that was run through a pulley tied to the limb of a tree overhanging the river. Such heavy loads were pulled up that two ropes were broken. The straw was dumped along the river bank and will be burned as soon as dry. After clearing away the dam the men went along the river and with pitchforks cleared out straw that had floated down and lodged in the brush. The stench of the rotten straw was so great that it sickened some of the men.

IS MAKING GOOD.

G. E. Perdew, Former Maryville Boy, in the Life Insurance Business at Hutchinson, Kan.

The following account is taken from the Hutchinson, Kan., Gazette about G. E. Perdew, a former Maryville boy, and a son of Mrs. Jesse Perdew, now residing at Lyons, Kan., with G. G. Perdew:

G. E. Perdew, local agent for the International Life Insurance company, enjoys a double distinction. He not only gets to take a fine trip through the east on the company, but he's the only agent of this company in the state who gets to take the trip.

Mr. Perdew made what is called the "hundred thousand dollar club." To make this club an agent must have written $100,000 worth of insurance in a year. Not content with making this good mark in a year, Mr. Perdew has written $100,000 worth since March 1st.

He leaves Hutchinson today and at Cleveland, O., joins some more of the company's representatives. They take a boat at Cleveland for Niagara Falls and Toronto, Canada. Later they go to Alexander Bay, N. Y., where a big banquet will be held. Then it is New York, Buffalo and home.

Mr. Perdew received the news of his good fortune yesterday from J. L. Babler, general manager of the agencies at St. Louis.

JUDGE GRAVES FOR SENATOR.

Talk of the Jurist Being a Candidate Against Senator W. J. Stone.

A dispatch from Jefferson City says: The possibility of Judge W. W. Graves of the state supreme court getting into the race for the United States senate against William Joel Stone next summer is causing the reactionary Old Guard wing of Missouri Democracy considerable worry.

While Judge Graves has steadfastly refused even to discuss making the race for the senate, a considerable movement is under way over the state to bring him out as a candidate for Stone's seat. And with the jurist in the field, trouble will be spelled with capital letters for the present senior senator from Missouri.

Judge Graves has been a leader in the supreme court for years. He has commanded the utmost respect of the lawyers of the state on account of his ability as a jurist without regard to their political affiliations. As a vote getter with the people Judge Graves is regarded as one of the most popular Democrats in Missouri.

Although Judge Graves refuses to discuss the possibility of his making the race and has stated to friends that he preferred to remain on the bench, it is believed that whether he becomes a candidate or not largely depends upon the attitude of ex-Governor Joseph W. Folk of St. Louis. Judge Graves has been a friend of Governor Folk and would not run against him or do anything that would in any way push him ont of the race.

Property Changing Hands.

Through the real estate firm of Smith & Grems, the George Aley residence property, in Southeast Maryville, was sold to E. E. Grubbe. Also through this same firm the George Aley property in St. Joseph was sold to Prof. John A. Whiteford, and Mr. Aley took in the deal Mr. Whiteford's residence lot on East Sixth street.

Oats Are Good.

There are many good yields of oats reported in the vicinity of Pickering. C. B. Leach had an average of 59 bushels an acre on ten acres. T. N. Kelley had a field which made 57 bushels per acre, and M. F. Gray reports over 50 bushels to the acre. J. L. Neal had 55 bushels an acre on seventeen acres.

The Franks Are Moving.

Mr. and Mrs. Arch Frank have moved to the Borrusch flats, where they will make their home until Mr. Frank builds on the lot next to his father, W. C. Frank. Mr. Frank sold his property on South Main street to Mrs. Ford of Columbia, Mo., and she will arrive in Maryville to take possession next Monday.

AFTER NEW MEMBERS

Two Teams of Nine Men Each to Conduct Campaign to Build Up the Membership of the Club.

The Commercial club is after new members, and arrangements are being made for a membership campaign in the city as well as in the country close to the city. Every business man should belong to the club, and efforts will be made to induce them to join.

The club will be divided into two teams, H. L. Raines captain of one and W. M. Oakerson captain of the other. Both leaders have chosen eight men to assist in the campaign and each one of these eight men to select five members of the club to help out in the work. The eight men selected by Mr. Raines are R. B. Montgomery, Byron Rhodes, C. C. Helmers, John Moore, Nic Sturm, H. C. Bower, Mayor A. S. Robey and Roy Curfman. The men selected by Professor Oakerson are Walter Wray, John E. Cameron, Charles Wadley, James Todd, Frank Reavis, Charles McNeal, George Moore and Dr. Jesse Miller.

The campaign for new members will start on Wednesday, September 3, and will close in two weeks. The team that secures the biggest number of new members will be the honor guest of a banquet at the expense of the losing team.

A special effort will be made to induce farmers to join the club. Since the Commercial club is a live organization, it is expected that not much trouble will be had to induce business men and farmers to join. The club has accomplished more during the past year than ever before, and the present year the indications are promising for a very successful year.

STOLE A GOLD WATCH.

Albert Glover, 15-Year-Old Boy, Confessed to Taking Watch From Ed Goeke.

Albert Glover, a 15-year-old colored boy, took a gold watch from Ed Goeke, who is in charge of the shoe repairing department of the Bee Hive shoe store. The watch was taken while Goeke was not looking, and when it was discovered to be gone the colored boy was suspected at once. Chief of Police Moberly arrested him, and the boy said he took the watch. It was returned to Mr. Goeke.

What will be done with the colored boy is not known. He is in the county jail at present. It is probable he will be brought up before the juvenile court.

Otis Gray of Parnell and Will and Alex Needles of Ravenwood were city visitors Tuesday.

To match the legal talent retained by William Sulzer to fight the impeachment charges against him when they come up before the state senate and members of the court of appeals on Sept. 18 the board of managers appointed by the assembly has employed as counsel John B. Stanchfield, Edgar T. Brackett, William Travers Jerome and Eugene Lamb Richards. In addition to this strong array of talent, Acting Governor Glynn is also to be advised by ex-Judge Edwin Countryman and P. C. Dugan.

MEET THIS WEEK

TEACHERS AND SCHOOL BOARDS WILL BE HERE TOGETHER.

Law Requires That they Obey Commands—Over 600 Will Be Here, Including School Boards.

The school boy should be happy this week, for his enemy, the teacher, is to have her turn at obeying commands. And not only that, but the awe-inspiring officers of the school board must meekly submit to some one else's orders. The law says, "Attend the teachers' meeting and the school board convention," and attend they must. Consequently 250 schoolmarms will throng to Maryville for a two days' stay Thursday, August 28, and they will be followed the next day by 350 of their district school board presidents and clerks.

This will be the first meeting of the school board convention, for the law creating it was passed only this last winter. The convention will take up such matters as the subjects of the curricula, the tenure of teachers, keeping of records, construction, care and equipment of buildings and the health of the children. Some of the speakers and their subjects are:

Prof. John E. Cameron, "Agriculture in the Rural Schools."

President Ira Richardson, "Longer Tenure for Rural Teachers."

"Senator Anderson Craig, "New School Legislation."

Addresses by J. Kelly Wright, lecturer for the state board of agriculture, Columbia, and W. A. Blagg.

The teachers' meeting will be in session both days. Friday morning there will be a joint meeting of the teachers and school board officers, at which time the addresses mentioned in the foregoing paragraph will be given. The other sessions will be separate, though all will be held in the high school building.

Prof. W. M. Oakerson will preside over the teachers' meeting Thursday, but on Friday he will attend the school board convention. Supt. W. M. Westbrook will preside at the teachers' meeting that day in his stead.

FOR THE SCHOOLS, $20,230.17.

Requisition Will Be Made by County Court On the State For This Amount.

A requisition will be made by the county court at its September meeting next week on the state for $20,230.17, which will go to the schools of the county. Of this amount $17,249.46 is the regular school apportionment and will be divided among all the schools according to attendance and the teachers' salary. Then there is $1,120.71 which will go to weak rural school districts, according to the recent new law. Then the high schools will receive $1,860, to be divided among a few of the schools that met all of the requirements of the law. Then there is $880 to go to a few high schools just as soon as their work is approved, but this amount is not included in the requisition.

A FARM MEETING.

One to Be Held on September 11 on the I. N. Gartin Farm, Near Darlington.

For the last three years the college of agriculture of the University of Missouri, the U. S. department of agriculture and I. N. Gartin, who lives five miles south of Darlington and about the same distance northeast of Ford City, have been running a demonstration farm. The work has been carried on quietly but effectively. As the work is of a public nature the University of Missouri and the government feels it their duty to give the farmers in Gentry county an opportunity to study the results accomplished on this farm.

September 11 a demonstration farm meeting will be held on the Gartin farm. Mr. Gartin has been following the best outline that could be given him for carrying on a systematic farm management plan of farming. The results obtained will show for themselves the day of the meeting. The biggest crops nor the fattest hogs may not be there, but the results of business farming will be shown.

In order to explain carefully the plan of the whole farm and go over the work in detail, the meeting will be started at 10 o'clock. Up until noon the time will be spent in talking over the plan of the work, then an hour will be given to an "all-join-in-" basket dinner, to which everyone is asked to contribute. After the dinner a trip will be made over the farm and every department of the work will be fully explained and all questions answered.

SENT BODY TO CRESTON.

Burial of Oscar Lofquist, Who Died Sunday, Will Be Held at That City.

The body of Oscar Lofquist, the man who died Sunday in his room over Knox's restaurant from drinking too much alcohol, was shipped to Creston, Ia., Monday night, where the friends of the dead man will take charge of it and conduct the burial.

Bud Knox went to Creston Monday noon to see what would be done there about the disposal of the body. He found that Mr. Lofquist had a number of friends there who were glad to take care of the body. Mr. Knox returned yesterday afternoon and the body, which was in the undertaking rooms of Price & McNeal, was immediately prepared for shipment and sent to Creston that night.

CHILDREN'S PICNIC

BEING ARRANGED FOR BY MEMBERS OF COMMERCIAL CLUB.

SEPTEMBER 3 IS DATE

Each Child of School Age in or Near Maryville Will Be Sent an Invitation to Attend.

Arrangements are being made by the Commercial club for a picnic in honor of the children of Maryville and also within a radius of a mile of so from Maryville. Such announcement was made at the board of directors of the club luncheon held Monday at the Elks club.

The committee in charge is composed of Joseph Jackson, Jr., John Sewell, J. F. Hull, Paul Sisson, Earl Barmann and F. P. Reuillard. The committee will meet soon to make the arrangements and each child of school age in the city and near the city will be sent an invitation to attend.

The picnic will be held Wednesday, September 3, probably at Powell grove. The children will be transported from the city to that place and also brought back by the Commercial club. It is thought such an outing for the children will be a very enjoyable occasion, as school will open only a few days afterward.

The children will be asked to bring baskets of good things to eat and the Commercial club will also furnish eatables. Many members of the club will be present at the picnic to see that the children are having a good time. The children will be taken out to the picnic grounds in automobiles.

TO COLLECT POLL TAX.

The City to Bring Suit Against Those Who Refused and Failed to Pay the Tax.

Those who have refused to pay their poll tax to the city had better come through within the next few days or suits will be filed against them. A list of those who have failed to pay have been turned over by Street Commissioner M. I. Woods to City Attorney W. H. Crawford. Mr. Crawford has been instructed to bring suit against these parties at once.

Every male resident of the city over the age of 21 years and under 50 is required to pay poll tax to the city. Street Commissioner Woods has collected most of the tax, but there are some who seem to think that it is not necessary to pay poll tax.

EVERY DAY A FARMERS' DAY.

Special Effort Being Made to Make the State Fair a Practical Benefit to the Farmer.

The Missouri state fair at Sedalia, September 27-October 3, gives wonderful promise of a great exhibition and largely increased attendance. Coming just before the American Royal at Kansas City, the Illinois state fair at Springfield, and the new state fair at Muskogee, Okla., and with a largely increased premium list, all departments of the exhibition will be strongly, especially the live stock show. An example of the prospects for the show may be seen in the entry list for the world's greatest saddle horse stake, in which there has been twenty entries.

In arranging for the coming exhibition at Sedalia, particular attention has been paid to the practical interests of the farmer. The model farm on the fair grounds; lectures and demonstrations by the experts of the federal station for the prevention of hog cholera; plowing, dairy and egg laying contests; the boys' state fair school, premiums in canning and bread making for girls and corn growing, stock and corn judging for the boys of the farm, and an especially attractive display of farm machinery will be among the features.

Monday, September 30, will be "Automobile day," and thousands of automobile parties are expected to visit the fair and enjoy the special features that have been arranged for that day. Tuesday is "Sedalia day," Wednesday "Agricultural Implement Dealers' day," Thursday "Governor's day," Friday "Missouri Editors' day," and every day "Missouri Farmers' day."

Several thousand dollars have been expended on improvements on the grounds and new buildings and many free amusements have been secured to entertain the visitors, among them Thaviu's band and grand opera sextet, latest model monoplane, a four-drop balloonist, a splendid racing card and five big acts of vaudeville.

The homes of Sedalia will be thrown open to those who prefer not to stop at the hotels, and an information bureau located on the public square of Sedalia, with a branch office on the fair grounds will furnish messenger service to direct visitors to their destinations and furnish information.

The catalogue and premium list may be secured free on application to Secretary John T. Stinson, Sedalia, Mo.

THE VALUE OF GOOD ROADS.

A Booster Bulletin Says Good Highways Will About Double Total Worth of Farm Land.

A good roads boosting bulletin which Labor Commissioner John T. Fitzpatrick issued Monday shows the necessity of a network of improved state highways which will place the remotest spot in Missouri in close touch with the busiest center.

Information is given that there are 277,244 farms in the state, taking up an acreage amounting to 34,591,248 acres of the 43,985,280 acres of land in Missouri. Of the farm lands 24,581,186 acres are improved and under cultivation, leaving 10,010,062 acres, of which 8,918,972 acres are still nearly in their original state, which means well timbered, with some sections high and dry, but ready for dairying and sheep and goat raising, and other sections low and very fertile, ready to produce from seventy-five to 100 bushels of corn per acre, annually, the amount they are cleared, drained and protected by high, substantial levees. Then there are 4,000,000 acres not included in the farm area and aside from the 5,000,000 which the cities and towns take up, ready to be put to some use.

The bulletin states that good roads and the taking up of all of the unimproved lands in the state will easily raise the total worth of Missouri's annual farm products, including live stock and dairy outputs from $500,000,000 to $800,000,000. Live stock and dairy products will double in amount and value, Missouri will take first place for its annual corn yield instead of holding third position and the wheat crop will increase 20 per cent, advancing the state one or two notches in that respect.

There is a future for the negro in farming. Of the 277,244 farms in the state 3,666 are run by negroes, 14,467 by white foreigners and 259,111 by white natives. The average size farm of Missouri, one of about 125 acres, annually derives, when averaged, about $1,842 from products which are sent to market. In addition there is the free living, the best the land affords with such articles as chicken, country butter and hams, buttermilk and rich cream on the daily menu, if it is desired. Also free rent when the farm is owned by the person running it. No outlay for fuel is necessary.

With all farms of the state, the buildings on them and other improvements and all domestic animals, poultry and bees, worth a total of $2,052,317,488, it means that the average farm, one of 125 acres, is worth $7,405. The average worth of these farm lands per acre is $42.

That a small farm in Missouri pays, in proportion, as well as one of 125 acres, is shown by the fact that there are 455 farms in the state with less than 3 acres; 7,561 with from 3 to 9 acres, and 10,740 with from 10 to 19 acres, the annual yields of which were included in getting at the average earnings per farm.

There are 80,020 farms in Missouri with an acreage of from 100 to 175 acres. Farms ranging from 50 to 99 acres are next in number, there being 74,178 of this class. Of other sizes, there are 47,398 in the state with from 20 to 49 acres; 32,109 ranging from 175 to 259 acres; 19,812, 260 to 499 acres; 3,427, 500 to 999 acres, and 544 with 1,000 acres and over.

Unimproved lands can be bought in certain places from $5 an acre up and improved for $20 and up, according to the location. A network of good roads will double the value of all cheaper farm land, which is, as a rule, only cheap because it is in a remote place.

Of the 277,244 farms in Missouri, 192,285, or 69.4 per cent are operated by the owners. More than half of Missouri's farms are free of mortgages, the number being 102,514 of 192,285 which are owned by the operators, a showing which is superior to that made by the farmers of Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Pennsylvania, New York and other eastern states. For farms which are encumbered, the mortgage only averages 38.9 per cent of the entire value, a condition which reveals that the debt is less than half of the amount which can be borrowed on them. Since 1890 the average Missouri farm increased in value from $2,643 to $6,083, a gain of $3,440, or 130 per cent. In the same time the indebtedness decreased over 24 per cent, when compared to the gain in worth.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Cadillac Police Car Covers 74,000 Miles in Two Years.

Seventy-four thousand miles in two years and ten days is the astonishing record made by the Cadillac five-passenger touring car which has been operated by the police department of Houston, Texas, for the regular work of hurry calls, transporting officers and prisoners to and from the courts, and the like. The car was purchased in 1911 and has just been replaced by a 1913 Cadillac.

The total of 74,000 miles is a remarkable record, for the average distance a motor car travels each year is not much more than 7,000 miles. The grand total of 74,000 is nearly three times around the globe. Yet this police car did its work night and day, irrespective of time or weather, and over some of the worst roads the city possesses. Moreover, as it was used for police service, quick action was necessary and therefore it was impossible on many occasions to return for a second or third load. Consequently it was a common practice to load this car with a dozen and even as many as sixteen people.

In spite of the numbers carried, the roads traveled and the distance covered the car is still in good condition, and, after being somewhat rebuilt, will be sold at a good price with a guarantee back of it.

LIND BIDS ADIEU TO MEXICO CITY

President Wilson's Envoy Leaves for Vera Cruz.

MAKES FINAL CALL ON GAMBOA

Nothing to Indicate Huerta Will Recede From His Position and President Will Read Message to Congress. Embargo on Arms to Remain.

Washington, Aug. 26.—President Wilson will read his message on the Mexican situation at the capitol today. This was decided following the receipt of a message from John Lind, personal representative of President Wilson in Mexico, that he had said goodbye to Foreign Minister Gamboa and would leave Mexico City today. Negotiations so far as Mr. Lind is concerned have been terminated. The United States will receive any further proposals through Charge d'Affaires O'Shaughnessy of the American embassy.

The policy of the United States was outlined to the members of the two congressional committees of foreign relations at a conference at the White House by President Wilson and Secretary Bryan. The president's message received practically unanimous approval. The future course of this government will be one of non-interference in the hope that the effect of its present efforts and the pressure of foreign governments will constitute a moral suasion that ultimately will bring about peace in Mexico.

No Lifting of Embargo.

The message makes it plain that there will be no lifting of the embargo on arms; that no faction or government in Mexico will be allowed to receive munitions of war from the United States. If necessary the president proposes to increase the American border patrol to enforce this policy.

It is a message of friendship, not hostility, and proclaims a policy of absolute non-interference. It proclaims to the world the sympathetic feeling that the United States government and the American people have for their neighbors in the rebellion torn republic south of the Rio Grande.

It records the views of the United States on constitutional government, its unalterable opposition to government set up by the irregular and arbitrary acts of ambitious individuals, and formally announces that the government of Victoriano Huerta shall not be recognized. The efforts of the United States to bring about a peaceful settlement of the difficulty through the representation made by John Lind, special envoy of President Wilson, are outlined, as well as the answer of the Huerta government.

The United States had proposed that a constitutional election be held and that Huerta should not be a candidate. To these suggestions, through which the United States believes peace could be restored, Huerta had replied in the negative. Foreign governments generally since that rejection have been active in support of the American policy to persuade Huerta to yield

Talk of It Assuming International Aspects Is Renewed.

Sherbrooke, Que., Aug. 26.—The arrival of William Travers Jerome, Harry Kendall Thaw's old prosecutor, the assumption by ex-Governor William A. Stone of Pennsylvania of the position of spokesman here for the Thaw family, pending the coming of Roger O'Mara, the Pittsburgh detective, and the injection into the case of renewed talk of it assuming international aspects, were briefly the chief developments of the day in Sherbrooke, the ninth since Stanford White's slayer fled from Matteawan.

Thaw again spoke of Jerome sneeringly, calling him "Willie" and insisted that his lawyers re-issue a summary of Jerome's remarks made in 1908, when he said that no one had ever contended Thaw was insane.

Forbes Learns of His Successor.

Manila, Aug. 26.—W. Cameron Forbes, governor general of the Philippines since November, 1909, sent his resignation to Washington. It is effective Sept. 1, when Mr. Forbes will leave directly for the United States. It was only recently, Mr. Forbes says, that he was apprised of the appointment of Francis Burton Harrison of New York as the new Philippine governor. His friends feel strongly that he deserved more courteous treatment after so long a service.

Will Probe Murder of Missionary.

Constantinople, Aug. 26.—The United States embassy here has dispatched Lewis Heck, acting vice consul, to open an inquiry into the circumstances attending the murder last week of Dr. Charles H. Holbreek, an American missionary, at Soushehir, Asiatic Turkey.

Jumps From Brooklyn Bridge.

New York, Aug. 26.—Peter Kelly, a young motorman, jumped from the Brooklyn bridge at its highest point and escaped with a few slight bruises. On his way down Kelly turned over half a dozen times and struck the East river almost flat on his back. Kelly refused to tell why he made the jump

1914 Overland $950

35 horsepower Electric lights 114-inch wheelbase

Again the price comes down—

—again the value goes up!

—again we prove the power and possibilities of large production.

Last year we built 40,000 cars. This was not enough for the demand by nearly 10,000 cars. This year we will manufacture 50,000 cars (twice as many as we did two years ago) cover the car with additional value and what will strike you as most remarkable, MAKE THE PRICE LOWER THAN EVER. Such is the net economical result of manufacturing one type of automobile on an enormous scale.

You who have followed our success from season to season have watched our annual models grow in value and decline in price. And as our prices came down our production went up. We have always and unfailingly given the public more automobile for less money than any other manufacturer in the industry.

Here are the big 1914 facts!

The motor has been enlarged. The bore is 4⅛ inch—stroke 4½ inch. It is conservatively rated at 35 horsepower and will develop 50 miles an hour. It has a five bearing crankshaft and three bearings on the camshaft.

The wheelbase has been lengthened to 114-inches. This, as you know, is the average wheelbase of $1200 cars. And a long wheelbase eliminates road jars and rut jolts.

The tires are large—33x4 inch Q. D. Large tires insure less upkeep expense, smoother operation and add to the appearance of the car.

The body design is symmetrical and graceful. It will appeal to those who admire the beauty of simplicity. It has a European cowl dash and full U doors (fore and rear) with disappearing hinges. The body is richly finished in dark Brewster green, edged with lighter green stripings and trimmed in heavy polished nickel and aluminum.

The upholstery is Turkish—soft, luxurious and comfortable. The rear back-cushion is 18¼ inch deep.

Set flush with the dash is a $40 Stewart speedometer—the most practical speed indicator in the world. The foregoing is but a short digest of the newest Overland, yet it concisely itemizes and sums up the greater Overland value. When you fully realize what an exceptional and economical buy the 1914 Overland is—after the great value facts have become firmly lodged in your commercial and calculating brain, remember this—THAT IN THE VERY FACE OF THIS INCREASED VALUE THE PRICE HAS AGAIN COME DOWN.

Price reduction is a condition that is controlled and regulated by factory facilities—the larger the manufacturer the lower he can market his merchandise. As we are producting more cars of this type than any other manufacturer in the world we can effect industrial economies which make it possible for us to market a car that will, on the average, cost you 30 per cent less than any other similar model.

Herrick Repudiates Move to Indict Murphy.

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 26.—A possible breach in the ranks of Governor Sulzer's supporters was indicated by the statement of former Judge D. Cady Herrick, who leads the governor's legal forces in the impeachment matter, that "counsel for Governor Sulzer have nothing to do with any alleged criminal proceedings against Charles F. Murphy, Senator Frawley or Assemblyman Levy, and are not pursuing any investigation of a criminal character against any one."

On the other hand Judge Lynn J. Arnold in New York and others in Albany in the confidence of Governor Sulzer reiterated the declaration that steps to procure indictments already have been taken both in New York and Albany counties.

The indictment of the three leaders is asked on statements of many persons presented by Judge Arnold to the district attorneys regarding an alleged conspiracy to put Sulzer out of the governor's chair. In so announcing, Judge Arnold repeated his declaration that money had been freely used to accomplish this result.

CAMINETTI PUT ON TRIAL

Western Fuel Case Also Comes Up at San Francisco.

San Francisco, Aug. 26.—F. Drew Caminetti, companion of Maury I. Diggs in the elopement from Sacramento, Cal., to Reno, Nev., with Marsha Warrington and Lola Norris, which resulted in the conviction of Diggs last week for violation of the Mann white slave act, will be brought to trial today in the United States district court before Judge Van Fleet. It is expected several days will be spent in the selection of a jury.

Virtually the same witnesses that figured in the Diggs trial will appear against Caminetti. The two young women with whom the pair eloped to Reno will take the stand. It is expected that Mrs. Caminetti will testify on behalf of her husband.

Simultaneously with the second of the Diggs-Caminetti cases, the Western Fuel case will be called for trial today in the United States district court. All three were bracketed in public notice when United States Attorney John L. McNab resigned, charging that the prosecution was being delayed by political and personal influence.

FREE RAW WOOL IS ACCEPTED BY SENATE

Kenyon's Amendment is Recommitted After Prolonged Debate.

Washington, Aug. 26.—Free raw wool was agreed to in the senate without a roll call.

Senator Kenyon's amendment to automatically free list products of a concern adjudged a monopoly by the courts precipitated a prolonged debate, with the conclusion of which it was referred to the finance committee. A division of opinion among Republicans and Democrats was developed.

Senator Cummins declared that necessity for free listing monopoly products would disappear when the Sherman law was amended to send offenders to jail and when courts appointed receivers to sell monopoly properties so that the guilty ones could not continue to profit.

"How can monopolies be ended when the supreme court declares a combination violates the law, as it did in the Union Pacific case, and then the attorney general goes around to devise a plan with those interested to keep the monopoly alive?" demanded Senator Bristow. He added that it seemed to him that in the Standard Oil, the tobacco case and the Union Pacific cases the department of justice had connived to continue their monopoly.

Later Bristow explained he did not charge the attorney general with seeking to annul the dissolution, but charged that the result of the attorney general's consultation with railroad interests had been to deprive the public of any benefits from the dissolution.

CAUCUS CHANGES MONEY MEASURE

Agricultural Currency Amendment Adopted by Democrats.

BOTH SIDES ARE SATISFIED.

"Insurgents" Assert They Won All They Contended For, While Chairman Glass Says Henry Surrendered Because He Was Beaten.

Washington, Aug. 26.—An agricultural currency amendment to the administration currency bill was adopted by the house Democratic caucus. After several preliminary skirmishes the caucus, without a dissenting vote, adopted an amendment, sponsored by the "insurgent" contingent and the banking and currency committee, putting paper based on agricultural products on the same basis as commercial paper for banking purposes. It also would extend the maturity of notes and bills admitted to discount under the amendment to ninety days, instead of the originally proposed forty-five days. This action disposed of the last of the big controversial issues in the administration currency bill.

Substance of Amendment.

The amendment, the result of many conferences and concurred in by administration leaders and those unsuccessfully seeking other amendments reads:

"Upon the indorsement of any member bank, any federal reserve bank may discount notes and bills of exchange arising out of commercial transactions, that is, notes and bills of exchange issued or drawn for agricultural, industrial or commercial purposes or the proceeds of which have been used or may be used for such purposes, the federal reserve board to have the right to determine or define the character of the paper thus eligible for discount, within the meaning of the act. But such definition shall not include notes or bills issued or drawn for the purpose of carrying or trading in stocks, bonds or other investment securities, nor shall anything herein contained be construed to prohibit such notes and bills of exchange, secured by staple agricultural products or other goods, wares or merchandise from being eligible for such discount.

Not More Than Ninety Days.

"Notes and bills admitted to discount under the terms of this paragraph must have a maturity of not more than ninety days."

"We have won all we contended for," was the comment of Representative Neeley of Kansas, in charge of the opposition to the bill. "The Glass amendment," added Representative Henry of Texas, "amounts practically to the amendment I have advocated during the last three months."

"The rediscount section as thus amended," replied Chairman Glass, "does not comprehend a single one of the wild and absurd suggestions which had been proposed. Mr. Henry surrendered solely and simply because he was beaten. He jumped after the boat left the wharf."

It was intimated in administration circles that some modification of the reserve features of the pending currency bill might be made at the suggestion of the bankers at the Chicago meeting, though it was not stated how far this modification would go. It was made plain, however, that there would be no receding from the position of federal control.

ROOSEVELT LAUDS HIS PARTY

Colonel Says Progressives Have Made Remarkable Record.

Chicago, Aug. 26.—Colonel Roosevelt, burned almost as red as the desert Indians, among whom he has been sojourning, spent less than two hours in the city before taking the Pennsylvania special for Oyster Bay.

He made a five-minute speech at the Progressive club, in which he addressed the guests as "friends, ladies and gentlemen, voters all."

In referring to the talk of merging the Republican and Progressive parties, he asserted that the only possibility of such a plan would be for the Republicans to adopt every principle of the Progressives, including the judicial plank. In his brief speech, Colonel Roosevelt said:

"There would be no woman suffrage in Illinois today if it had not been for the work done by the Progressive party last year. Never in the history of the country has a political party accomplished what the Progressive party has in its brief history."

Hits "Joy Rides" at City's Cost.

St. Louis, Aug. 26.—An ordinance to limit the "joy riding" of city officials in municipal automobiles has been drafted by the comptroller and street commissioner for introduction at the next meeting of the municipal assembly. It is stated that trips to and from lunch, evening social calls and week-end trips into the country taken in machines intended only for the transaction of municipal business, cost the city $49,000 last year.

Missouri's First Recall Election.

St. Joseph, Mo., Aug. 26.—The first recall election ever held in Missouri was staged here today, when the question of recalling Mayor Charles A. Pfeiffer was submitted to the voters. Pfeiffer is a Republican.
